Notice Regarding ADC CORPORATION Joining the A&D Group

A&D Company, Limited (Head Office: Toshima-ku, Tokyo; Representative Director: Yasunobu Morishima) (the “A&D”) and ADC CORPORATION (Head Office: Namegawa-machi, Hiki-gun, Saitama; President and Representative Director: Hiroshi Mochida) (the “ADC”) hereby announce that ADC has joined the A&D Group following A&D’s acquisition of ADC’s shares.

Leveraging its analog measurement technologies developed over many years, ADC has been engaged in the development, manufacture, and sale of electronic measuring instruments, including digital multimeters, DC voltage/current generators, and digital electrometers. Its advanced measurement technologies and products and services rooted in research and development, manufacturing, and quality assurance environments have earned the trust of many customers.

As an operating company of A&D HOLON Holdings Company, Limited, A&D conducts business in the fields of Measuring and Weighing Equipment Business, Medical and Healthcare Equipment Business, and Semiconductor-related Business, with “measuring” technology at its core. A&D and ADC believe that by mutually utilizing their respective technologies, products, and customer bases, they will be able to further strengthen their product development capabilities, proposal capabilities, and sales and service structures in the electronic measurement field.

Following this transaction, there will be no changes at present to ADC’s products and services, support functions such as repair and calibration, customer inquiry contacts, or business transactions with customers and business partners. We will continue to provide services under the current structure.

While continuing to value the technologies, brands, and trusted relationships with customers and business partners cultivated over the years, A&D and ADC, as members of the A&D Group, will strive for further improvements in quality and expansion of services.

We sincerely appreciate your continued support of both the A&D Group and ADC.
